

M.. Dr. Muhammad Wahib Yassin

- Birth 5/20/1979

- Specialization in Radio and Television/ Helwan University/ Arab Republic of Egypt

- A former journalist and media personality for a number of local and international satellite channels and radio stations

- Title of the doctoral thesis: The role of talk shows on Iraqi satellite channels in spreading the culture of societal peace among young people. 2017

- Scientific publications:-

A - Innovation and elements of artistic construction in radio and television advertisements.

B - Advertisements and their impact on purchasing behavior with applied models.

- Participation in the first scientific conference of the Iraqi Media Network in the research titled: The role of the Iraqi News Channel in spreading the legal culture among the Iraqi public regarding combating corruption and restricting weapons.. A study on the government's approach to the issues of combating corruption and restricting weapons in the hands of the state.

- My lesson at the Faculty of Mass Communication - Al-Farahidi University.